THIS WEEK'S HOT LIST

The movies and books not to miss

Film

Military Wives

Out 6 March

Kristin Scott Thomas and Sharon Horgan are gloriously on song in this funny, feel-good film inspired by Gareth Malone's chart-topping choir. With their soldier husbands in Afghanistan, Scott Thomas's Kate and Horgan's Lisa form an awkward partnership as the leaders of a morale-boosting choir. Blending humour, heart and more than a little pathos, The Full Monty director Peter Cattaneo hits all the right notes, making it hard to remain dry-eyed.

House of Trelawney

by Hannah Rothschild (£16.99, Bloomsbury, HB)

The Trelawney family have been at their ancestral seat for more than 800 years, enduring across the ages and spending more with each generation. Now things have changed, particularly with the arrival of an unheard of and opinionated relation and a hedge fund manager out for revenge. A satirical, clever and multi-layered read.

DVD

The Addams Family

Out now. RRP £9.99

The first full-length animated film about the eccentric and unconventional family celebrates the uniqueness of every family and delivers spooky fun while delivering a fresh take on the beloved characters created by Charles Addams. Includes bonus exclusive never-seen-before features including deleted and extended scenes!
